From the Publisher

Friends,

Thank you for taking some time to look through this catalog! It has sure been an interesting and challenging year for churches and music programs.

I like to stay engaged and connected with various online communities and forums of church musicians and creative thinkers and as we've collectively navigated the waters of 2021, there are two things I have come to find out. 1, we as church musicians are passionate and determined and 2, while we're very much in the same boat, everyone is facing different challenges.

We realize that your needs are different than they were a year ago and that your ability to plan long-term also looks different. The goal of this catalog is to help you find some flexible options. If your choir is singing, we have options for smaller voicings and easy-to-rehearse anthems. We have also made room to highlight some additional options for vocal solos and duets as well as small handbell groups.

We have also vastly expanded our digital offerings for choral and keyboard music. With last-minute changes in plans and the need to distribute music to musicians digitally, having access to exactly what you need right when you need it is paramount these days. Find the exact anthem you need or that perfect piano or organ arrangement with just a few easy clicks. Visit us at www.lorenz.com to browse those newly available titles.

In case it has been a while since you've gotten a sincere "thank you" for hard work and dedication over the past year, I hope you'll take mine to heart from one church musician to another. Though this road has been tough, may we all continue to strive to spread the Gospel through song and inspire our musicians and congregations through music.

Christ Is Risen, Sing Alleluia!

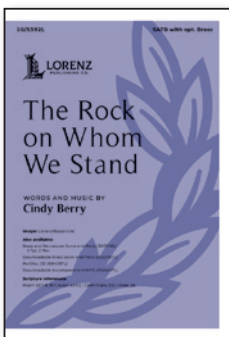

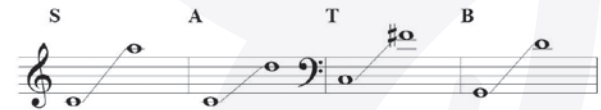

Lloyd Larson

Easter

This exclamatory anthem is a joyous proclamation of Christ's Resurrection. The regal opening features bold choral divisi before settling into a unison statement of a melody expertly composed by Lloyd Larson. The final section ultimately builds up to a restatement of the opening and ends with a big finish. Incorporate brass, handbells, percussion, and organ for a spectacular Easter morning!

Who Is This?

Victor C. Johnson

Lent • Holy Week

Who is this, despised, rejected, mocked, insulted, beaten, bound? 'Tis Christ, the man of sorrows, dying in agony. 'Tis Christ, the suffering Savior, hanging there on Calvary's tree. Victor Johnson's anthem is a dramatic yet simple reflection on Christ's Crucifixion. Focusing on the immense sacrifice at Calvary, it is an excellent choice for a contemplative moment in a Holy Week or Good Friday service.

In Christ Alone

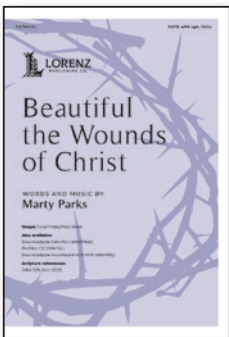

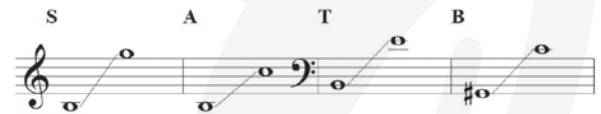

Keith Getty and Stuart Townend/
arr. Mark Hayes

General • Ascension • Christ the King • Easter

Keith Getty and Stuart Townend's substantive modern hymn "In Christ Alone" quickly emerged as a contemporary classic. Its sonorous, soaring melody feels a bit like a Celtic folk song. This setting starts simply and builds with each verse, culminating in a glorious affirmation of Christ's Resurrection from the grave.

Clap, Clap Your Hands!

Marty Parks

General

Inspired by Psalms 47 and 57, Marty Parks brings us this energetic and upbeat anthem of celebration. Unison lines burst in and out of four-part harmony, and melodic figures pass back and forth from soprano and alto to tenor and bass. With layering melodies, it builds to an exciting conclusion. The optional brass and percussion are sure to boost this piece even more.

Steadfast Love

Great Is Thy Faithfulness

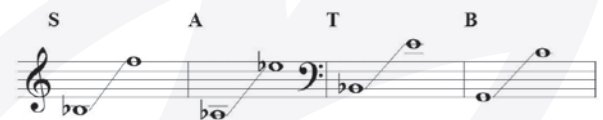

Larry Shackley

General

With a soaring melody and a flowing accompaniment, "Steadfast Love" emphasizes the infinite mercy of God. Larry Shackley intertwines the favorite hymn "Great Is Thy Faithfulness" with original music for an uplifting worship experience.

*The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases;
His mercies never come to an end.
They are new ev'ry morning;
great is Thy faithfulness.*

Worthy Is the Lamb!

*Revered King,
Rejected Messiah,
Risen Savior*

Lloyd Larson

Worthy Is the Lamb! is the compelling story of God's plan to deliver all people from the clutches of sin and death. Lloyd Larson presents this powerful reminder that Isaiah's prophetic words were fulfilled in Jesus: Surely He has borne our griefs and carried our sorrows. He was pierced for our transgressions; crushed for our iniquities; upon Him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and by His wounds we are healed (Isaiah 53:4-5). Flexibly conceived for Lent, Holy Week, or Eastertide programming, each of the three sections may be presented during the weeks or days leading up to Easter, or the entire musical may be presented as a single worship experience. Small and large choirs alike will find the choral writing appealing and versatile. Accompaniment options ranging from piano only to full orchestra with CD accompaniment or live instruments ensure maximum flexibility for your unique programming needs.

Once Upon a Morning

From Resurrection to Pentecost

Pepper Choplin

Once Upon a Morning is a delightfully creative and vivid musical telling of the days after Christ's Resurrection, beginning with the discovery of the empty tomb and depicting the instances when Jesus appeared to His disciples. From start to finish, Pepper Choplin's creative spark shines through this unique, storybook-like work spanning from Easter through Pentecost. Songs ranging from the rhythmically charged to smooth ballads, conversational passages between soloists, and optional congregational participation are sure to inspire your choir and congregation to reflect with awe on these key events following the Resurrection. The narration is based primarily on direct scripture passages and can be recited by one or multiple narrators.

In Calvary's Shadow:

A Tenebrae Service

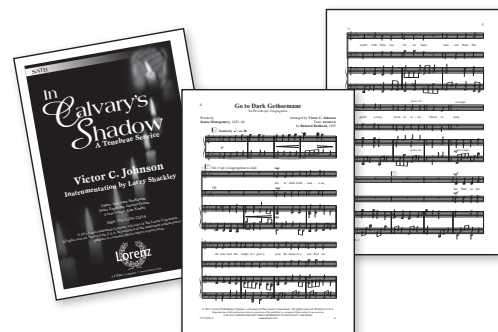

Victor C. Johnson

In Calvary's Shadow is a deeply moving service of penitence and forgiveness. It invites the faithful to experience Jesus' journey from betrayal through crucifixion with a tightly woven tapestry of dramatic scripture readings, vocal solos, and congregational singing, and arrangements of spirituals and gospel hymns, as well as newly composed music by Victor Johnson. Central to the title and the liturgy is the ritual extinguishing of seven candles, leaving the church in total darkness except for the Christ Candle. After a period of quiet meditation while sitting "in Calvary's shadow," God's people exit the church in silence. This dramatic Tenebrae service is perfect for incorporation into regular Holy Week worship. Quickly and easily prepared, it can be performed with or without simple staging and costumes, and the readings can be performed by one to five readers.

Bless the Lord
 Jonas Myrin and Matt Redman/
 arr. Bryan Sharpe

General

This beloved modern hymn from Matt Redman and Jonas Myrin has been expertly arranged in a contemporary a cappella setting for worship choirs. Background vocals function as accompaniment to a tenor lead, and optional vocal percussion or hand percussion, such as cajon or djembe, complements the expressive vocal parts.

*Bless the Lord, O my soul,
 O my soul; worship His holy name.
 Sing like never before, O my soul;
 I'll worship Your holy name.*

Abandoned to the Cross

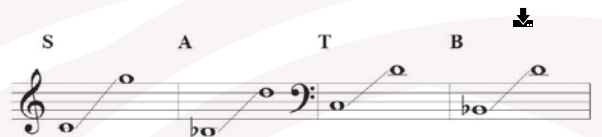

Jay Rouse
 Words by Randy Cox and
 Lowell Alexander

General • Good Friday • Holy Week

This emotive ballad by Jay Rouse reflects on the pivotal moment that Jesus was abandoned by God the Father and was left alone to die—sacrificing His life and taking on the sin of the world. The dynamic lyrics then rejoice in the Resurrection with a euphoric and victorious ending.

*He was abandoned to the cross,
 left alone in time and space.
 He paid a grievous cost,
 and suffered in my place.*

My Savior, My God

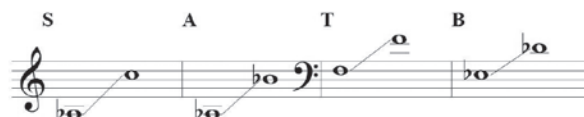

Aaron Shust/arr. Jay Rouse

General

This popular worship song by Aaron Shust rejoices in the knowledge that God is the same yesterday, today, and forever. Though full of mystery beyond human comprehension, His love is sure and constant. Arranged by Jay Rouse for choir, this setting is a wonderful opportunity for choir and congregation to worship together.

Broken Bread, Broken Life

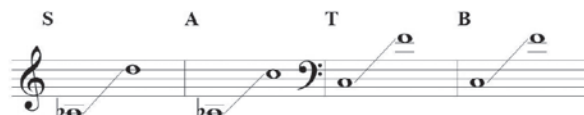

Jay Rouse

Words by Rose Aspinall

General • Good Friday • Holy Week

This passionate worship anthem by Jay Rouse emphasizes Christ's ultimate sacrifice on the cross and His gift to all believers of new life. A serene opening builds to a profound finale, where the choir repeatedly proclaims, Lord, You are the Bread of Life. Thank You for Your sacrifice. Highly appropriate for use throughout the Easter season, it is just as impactful year-round. From Songs of the Cross (55/1199MD).

Worship In Sorrow

from In Spirit and In Truth by Marty Parks

The world is watching us. They're watching to see how we'll react to a crisis, how we'll respond to a tragedy. They're watching to see if what we boldly profess when the sun is shining will be the same song we sing when darkness envelops us. Nowhere is our faith tested to any greater extent than in the face of death. Death can be sudden. Death can be cruel. Death dashes hopes and crushes dreams. It's the final enemy according to 1 Corinthians 15:26, and so many times, it does seem to stamp "finality" on everything it touches.

Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope.
(1 Thessalonians 4:13)

There it is: Hope. It's not hope in the sense of wishful thinking, but hope in the sense of assured expectation. It's hope as in the affirmation of those things we know to be true.

Though the fig tree does not bud and there are no grapes on the vines, though the olive crop fails and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen and no cattle in the stalls, yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will be joyful in God my Savior.
(Habakkuk 3:17-18)

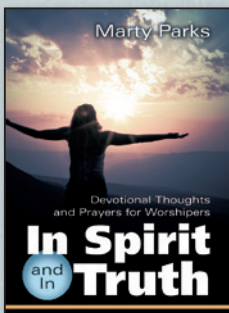

Can you say the same thing? When the job is terminated and income runs thin before it runs out? When disagreements fester and the relationship is broken? When disease runs rampant and death appears to have the final say?

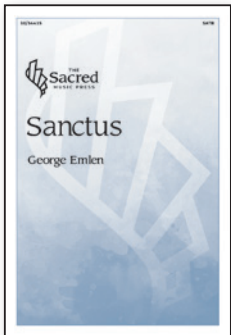

Look back at verse 3 in today's reading from Revelation 14. That "new song" mentioned there implies quality as opposed to chronology. It was a "new" song because it had an entirely different quality from anything they'd sung before. It was birthed of a special, unique experience—an experience leading to hope, promise, and victory. The song of the overcomer.

The world is watching, and the world is listening for the song we'll sing.

*Father, this day we choose to praise You.
In the midst of struggle,
in the midst of strife,
in the midst of defeat,
we choose to praise You.
Amen*

- How do catastrophes, disasters, and disappointments color the way you worship?
- What kind of example can you set when tragedy strikes?
