FOREWORD

Over the past few years, I've developed a deep appreciation for the songwriters of Sovereign Grace Churches. The music written by these faithful men and women, under the direction of Bob Kauflin, is full of rich theology, inspired melodies and rhythms, and fresh harmonies. Such is the extent of my admiration that, as a worship leader, I find myself introducing their music to my congregation more and more often.

It comes as no surprise, then, that I'd also love to introduce their music to you, just in case you happen to be unfamiliar with it. Therefore, when the opportunity arose to arrange a small selection of their repertoire, I immediately said yes.

Since these are newer songs of the faith (some written even within the last few years), I didn't want to embellish the tunes and harmonies too much. It's one thing to completely re-imagine an established melody, such as "Amazing Grace," but it's a completely different thing to re-imagine a melody that has not yet become a part of the sacred music canon. In other words, it makes no sense to present the variation when not everyone is familiar with the theme yet. So, these arrangements are intentionally a bit more straightforward. I want to simply let the songs speak for themselves.

As you prepare these pieces, I'd encourage you to go to the Sovereign Grace Music website (www.sovereigngracemusic.com) and study the lyrics to each song. I promise you'll receive many blessings if you do.

As always, thanks to the Lorenz Corporation for encouraging me to write this collection, and thanks especially to Sovereign Grace Music for granting permission to arrange their material.

Enjoy the music!

—Brad Nix
