Welcome!

Hello everyone, and welcome to our Fall 2023 choral catalog!

I live in the Austin area, and I admit it's a little strange to be thinking about the upcoming fall season with the long, hot, Texas summer still ahead. However, fall will be here before we know it, so it's time to start planning now.

Speaking of the word "time," I recently finished Rick Warren's seminal book, The Purpose Driven Life, which I'd actually not read before. In one of the chapters, Rick discusses the importance of time. Time, as it turns out, is a priceless gift given to each of us. And, of course, when it's gone...it's gone. We cannot create, or make, more time.

So, choral directors and singers, as you spend countless hours preparing, rehearsing, and leading, you're freely using up one of your most precious commodities—your time—and we're so grateful that you give of yourself in this way. May the thousands of moments you spend ministering to others yield eternal rewards for both you and your congregation.

I'm also grateful for the composers, arrangers, and orchestrators who tirelessly spend their time creating material for churches all across America and the world. I know personally most, if not all, of the writers whose names you'll see in this catalog, and I assure you their primary desire is to bring glory to God, and to uplift your congregation, through the music they write.

And, I'm thankful for those who work behind the scenes at Lorenz. Their names might not appear in print, but, without them, we'd be in serious trouble. From data processing to marketing, from product development to design, these folks give of their time above and beyond the call of duty because they believe in the mission of this company.

What an indescribable honor it is for all of us to work with people whose passion is to further God's kingdom through music. As church musicians, we are so blessed.

Wow.

In closing, thank you for continuing to allow Lorenz to partner with you in your music ministry. It's our distinct privilege and joy to spend our time serving you and your church. On behalf of the entire Lorenz team, I want to wish you a happy fall, and a very Merry Christmas!

Sincerely,

To God Be the Glory

Cindy Berry

Benediction • General

Cindy Berry has done it again! Applying her formidable arranging talents to one of our most cherished hymns, she has created an anthem that you will return to again and again. Bookended by brief, concertato-like fanfares, Cindy sets two verses of this classic hymn in grand style. Solid part-writing makes this anthem accessible for all choirs, and a brilliant brass orchestration by Michael Lawrence completes the package.

Pick Up a Crown

Heather Sorenson

General

Heather Sorenson is a student of the traditional spiritual, and her skill shines brightly in this exciting new anthem. Starting with a slow, soulful solo accompanied by the choir, this dazzling selection quickly moves into an up-tempo groove that will keep feet tapping until the very end. Deftly featuring a wide variety of vocal textures, this contemporary spiritual will take some work, but the results will be worth it!

Who Is Like You?

Larry Shackley

Earth Day • General

Larry Shackley, in addition to being a fine composer, is an exceptional lyricist. His dual talents are on full display in this moving anthem praising the God of creation. With a text deeply grounded in Scripture, the choir asks the important question, "Who is like You, O Lord?" As the anthem moves toward its grand conclusion, the voices break forth in a majestic affirmation of God's holiness, with the symphonic piano writing offering full support.

I Believe, Help My Unbelief

Lloyd Larson

General • Invitation

This is one of the most moving anthems you will find. Lloyd Larson has taken the well-known, but anonymously written, affirmation of faith, "I believe in the sun even when it is not shining," and set it to music. To complement this beautiful affirmation, he pairs it with one of the most cherished passages in all of Scripture, Mark 9:24. This inspired anthem will move your listeners and minister to those who are hurting or dealing with doubt.

CANTATA/MUSICAL

A New and Glorious Morn!

Celebrating the Light and Life of Christmas

Lloyd Larson

A New and Glorious Morn! reminds us of the reality that, in Christ, the old is gone and the new has come. Through the birth of this tiny baby, the promise of eternal life is now given to anyone who will receive God's message of salvation through faith. Using his signature blend of familiar lyrics and melodies coupled with compelling original material, Lloyd Larson retells and celebrates this timeless story in a unique and memorable way.

Orchestrated by Ed Hogan and available in both SATB and SAB editions, numerous accompaniment options—from piano only to live instruments to a recorded track—are available for this 30-minute musical. Lloyd's choral writing is always well supported and beautifully crafted, so this is a perfect option for choirs of any size who wish to start, or restart, a Christmas cantata tradition.

Come, Adore the Newborn King! • Prepare for the Coming of the Lord • The Promised King of Heaven • Holy Child of Bethlehem • All Glory Be to God on High! • Rise Up, Shepherd, Go Tell It! • A Holy, Silent Night • Arise and Shine, Your Light Has Come!

Festival of Christmas

A Joyful Celebration of the Season

Mary McDonald

Celebrating the joyful news of Christ's birth, Festival of Christmas features the exciting and inspiring music of the season in a 40-minute work for worship or concert setting. Incorporating more than a dozen well-known Christmas carols and five original songs, the story unfolds through music and narrative. Two selections are for either a soprano or tenor soloist with choral background. The exhilarating accompaniment, brilliantly scored by the creative pen of Michael Lawrence, adds sparkle to the presentation. However, all the thrills and key moments lie within the piano score, making it a compelling option on its own.

Composed for a world premiere on the main stage at Carnegie Hall, this musical is available in SATB and SAB editions. Particular attention was given to the vocal ranges in the SAB version, and a split-track accompaniment option is available for those desiring additional vocal support in rehearsal or performance.

A Festival of Hymns

A Worship Celebration for Choir and Congregation

Lloyd Larson

As the world slowly moves away from the height of the pandemic, Lloyd Larson believes that now, more than ever, is an appropriate time to come together as believers and celebrate our shared heritage of hymnody. Brimming with the time-honored hymns of our faith, Lloyd's legendary creativity is on full display as he breathes new life into these timeless melodies.

A Festival of Hymns can be presented as either a seasonal or non-seasonal work, and a number of performance options are available, including an SAB choral version and an optional full orchestration from Ed Hogan. In addition to the sanctuary choir loft, we're sure this moving ten-song work will also find a place in the folders of community choirs everywhere. Don't miss this new celebration of worship from one of our most gifted and respected writers!

Before the King

Phil Nitz

Christmas - General

Before the King is an expressive song that acknowledges the humility of Jesus in his birth and life even though being God's son. The words encourage us to bring before the King all our worries and burdens in exchange for the hope He gives. This arrangement begins with an expressive solo before being joined by the choir and building together into a powerful bridge that incorporates the melody of ODE TO JOY before going back into a brief breakdown chorus with choir, solo, and drums, and ending softly with the encouraging words "Bring all you are before the King."
